THROUGH a long succession of thirty years it has been the responsible and arduous task of one man to administer the affairs of public education in Louisiana. To review the annals of our excellent system of schools is to esteem the spirit and services of that man . . . Dr. Thomas H. Harris, State Superintendent of Education.

With a grateful and reverent sense of his far-reaching vision, his tireless labor and his monumental achievements, the Senior Class of Southwestern Louisiana Institute beg leave to dedicate this volume.

THE COMING OF THE BIGNONIAS TO GIRARD HALL

The night wind rustled through trees
And kissed a barren brick wall;
The old wall offered a plea;
The night wind answered its call.

Swiftly it swirled to the stars
Up past the mantle of night
"Please, little stars," it murmured,
"Lend me a bit of your light—"

Now the old wall smiles gayly
No longer the color of rust
For 'tis cloaked in a bright new cape
Of green leaves and stardust.

ROBERT L. BROWNE Athletic Director

Under his guidance and leadership, athletics have thrived at Southwestern for the past 14 years. Yearly S. L. I. athletics have grown and gained national recognition—football, basketball, boxing and track have been put on a basis tantamount to that of any college of similar enrollment in the country. This year, Athletic Director Browne has arranged a strenuous 11 game football schedule with the leading teams of Texas, Mississippi, Alabama and Louisiana. Southwestern has "growing desires" and athletics under Director Browne will lead the way into a brilliant future.

JOHN CAIN Football Coach

This past gridiron season marked the first year for Coach John "Hurry" Cain as head football mentor at Southwestern. Before coming to our college, he gained national recognition as an All-American back with Alabama. However, those days are gone—Southwestern is looking forward, and it feels that Cain will repeat his past performances only this time from the coaching bench. His initial season, was a marked success. His own version of the old Rockne system proved effective and with returning stars and additional newcomers, S. L. I. expects him to mold an eleven of championship calibre this fall.

GEORGE MITCHELL Line Coach

Aiding and serving as assistant gridiron "prof" to Coach Cain is a former L. S. U. star lineman—George "Gee" Mitchell. As the first assistant, Mitchell is an invaluable asset to the S. L. I. football edition. He knows the game—and can transmit his grid knowledge to the athletes. Besides his gridiron efforts, Coach Mitchell tutored the undefeated "boxing" team of Southwestern.

Browne

Cain

This year has seen the beginning of a new era for Southwestern, and the band has had a large hand in it. It is by far the best band to ever represent this College, and much credit is due to Colonel Baranco and the band members who have worked so faithfully throughout the year. The band took several trips this year and were highly complimented whenever they appeared. It is hoped that a larger number of trips will be planned for the coming year, as the band will be much larger and better than ever before.

The excellent college spirit shown at all athletic events throughout the year can largely be attributed to the band, whose tireless efforts made the going look brighter at dark moments, and who always were ready to cheer the boys on to victory. For the first time in the history of Southwestern the band members have received some compensation for the work done. They were exempted from the payment of their athletic fee. Next year it is hoped that a number of Scholarships will be available for band members, or those whose musical ability will warrant one.

HENRY WILLIAMS

Tubby is his nickname and in football he was like a tub of dynamite plunging around. He came to us from the town of Homer, Louisiana. In the beginning of the season he held down the tackle position for the Bulldogs but when injuries forced Weber from the lineup, Tubby, because of his all-around adaptability, was shifted to the pivot position which he held admirably and ably for the rest of the season. A senior in school, S. L. I. will be hard-pressed to find a man successfully to fill the positions he has successively held for three years.

RALPH WEBER

Cowboy Weber, a Texas "Bulldog" bailing from Houston, whose services to the S. L. I. team have been invaluable, has ended his gridiron career at S. L. I. with an unequalled record. Until injuries kept him from the game, Weber held down the center pivot position of the team with a skill that made him one of the best pivots the school has ever had.

WILLIAM GARTH

Billy, from the hills of Mississippi, has been a shining example of what a real football player should be. His years of service for the team are over; but he has been a field general of the highest type—one of the finest football players of the last season.

Williams

Weber

Garth

J. Y. DUNCAN

For four years J. Y. has been an outstanding athlete on the campus. In track, basketball and football he has shone brightly as an example of a real sportsman. He comes from Alexandria where, in high school days, he handled the terminal post. At S. L. I. he again held down the same important position and has succeeded wonderfully in this position. He is leaving S. L. I. but he will be remembered long for his sportsmanship and play.

Duncan

Gunter

Abel

GLYNN ABEL

Glynn has been one of the most promising backs S. L. I. has had in many a year. His ability as a ball carrier was clearly shown in the many thrilling plays he has executed during the past season's games. Glynn was the S. L. I. football thriller, and many people sat and waited patiently until that boy Abel would cut loose with another of those long thrilling runs for which he is famous. With one more year left to play, Glynn promises to be the most outstanding back for next season's activities.

SAM GUNTER

Another one of Alabama's football sons. Sam is one of the most outstanding triple-threats Southwestern has seen in years. He punts, he passes, he makes end runs. Sam is capable, and proved it many, many times during the games of the last season.

FOOTBALL

1938 VARSITY

KNOX VINCENT LITTLE

Knox comes from Russellville, Alabama. He is one of the largest men on the team. His name will go down in Southwestern's football history as the most outstanding tackle. With two more years to play Knox shows indications of turning into one of the most spectacular players around these parts.

JAMES SANFORD

An Alabama giant, running loose on S. L. I.'s football field might be a good way to picture the power and zip of Sanford's performances against the team's opponents. Sanford is from Reform, Alabama, and has been a brilliant player on S. L. I.'s football squad. He has been in the midst of it all and has outplayed all of those who lined up against him the past season. A senior in college—a paver of the road for Southwestern's victories—he will be deeply missed and needed on the field of battle for S. L. I.'s football fans.

ROBERT DeROUEN

Last football season saw with opening eyes the flashy ball carrying of this able lad who came to us from New Iberia. With just the right amount of zip and dash mixed with a lot of twist and turn, he exhibited a rare combination of what has made him such a valuable player to the S. L. I. team. Filling the shoes of this broken-field-runner will be a hard task for the team of next year. Long will Bobby be remembered as one of the flashiest runners that ever hit the Southwestern campus.

Little

Sanford

DeRouen

VERNE WHITE

Although not the biggest fellow on the team, Verne was the type of player who could be relied upon to do what was needed during the game. With every ounce of 157 pounds, he crashed through the lines and smothered opponents. With every faculty available he spotted the forward passes of other teams and smothered them before they were completed. He will be badly missed by the team.

BARNEY FOREMAN

Barney has been one of the stalwart linemen of the Bulldog team for the past season. Next year, football fans will witness his aggressiveness and determination and acclaim him as the most successful and versatile lineman of the Bulldog team.

White

Rodgers

Foreman

JOE RODGERS

Joe hails from Phenix City, Alabama. He is only a sophomore, but with two more years left to play, he will surely be a star for the future teams of S. L. I. Already he has demonstrated his ability by his ball-carrying and from all indications it is evident that he will be one of our regular starters next season.

FOOTBALL

1938 VARSITY

THOMAS RUPERT GAGNET

Rupert resides in the town of Plaquemine, Louisiana. A sophomore, playing his first year of varsity competition, Rupert held down the end position like a veteran. With two more years left to play, he will turn into one of the greatest terminals of Southwestern.

JOE HERPIN

Last year Joe was referred to as the large, dark man of the S. L. I. football squad. His 220 pounds have smashed into many a rival with terrific force. The Jinx followed him around this year and it was with regret that fans found Joe, unfortunately, out of the lineup in some games because of injuries sustained. A senior, he will be hard to replace in the S. L. I. lineup.

JAMES VICTOR RUSSELL

"Pelahatchie" is another of those Mississippi folk who migrated to S. L. I. A junior, Russell has shown valiant aggressiveness and alertness, qualities needed by linemen on college football teams. With one more season left to play for the Red and White he'll be there fighting with the same old spirit that he has always shown in the past. We are predicting a big season for him next year.

Gagnet

Herpin

Russell

OTIS COLEMAN HURST

Hurst hails from Jonesboro, Louisiana. A giant of a man, and very powerful, Hurst should prove in his next two years of football, to be one of the very best linemen to don the red and white.

VERNON FRANCIS BELL

"Dixie," as his comrades call him, comes from Pineville, Louisiana. In his first year in football Dixie received a serious shoulder injury which kept him from competition that season. Last season he turned out to be a promising prospect for the next year's team and in all probability will be holding down the terminal post.

Hurst

Bourgeois

Bell

ASHTON BOURGEOIS

Ashton comes from Plaquemine, and his sure-footedness and side-stepping ability have made him an outstanding player on the Bulldog squad for this past season. With one more season left to play, it is very evident that Bourgeois will be one of our leading ball carriers of the next year.

FOOTBALL

1938 VARSITY

WILLIAM FRANCIS STEVENSON

Bill calls Bastrop, Louisiana, his home. His start of football, his first varsity year, turned out to be very successful. With two more years ahead he will probably be one of the linemen who will be hard to keep off the starting eleven.

ALLEN DOUGLAS TILLMAN

Tillman, from Rayville, Louisiana, a tall, rangy man, played good, hard, clean football at a tackle berth. "Tilly," at the first of the season, found going hard; but before mid-season he had shoved himself up to a regular position. This is his sophomore year and there is little doubt that Tillman will be a bright spot on our coming eleven.

WILBUR CAMP

Wilbur, a sophomore, comes from Haynesville, Louisiana. Playing his first year of varsity football at a guard position, he proved to be an outstanding prospect for the future teams of Southwestern.

Stevenson

Tillman

Camp

FREDERICK DICKY

Dickey has a promising future ahead for college football; but unfortunately before the season had barely got underway he was obliged to leave school.

HILERY DOLLAHITE

Texas is the home state of Hilery. As a sophomore he showed his ability to handle the guard position of the team. He is adept and skillful in his maneuvering, and next year's team should see much of his services.

Dickey

Ducharme

Dollahite

SIDNEY LOUIS DUCHARME

Sid lives in Opelousas, Louisiana. A sophomore, Sid handled the tackle post of the Bulldogs' forward wall. With two more years left to play, we are confident Ducharme will give valuable service to the team.

FOOTBALL

1938 VARSITY

BAXTER SUMMERS

A native of Brookhaven, Mississippi, Baxter has been one of the "shock troops" of the S. L. I. backfield. Being a halfback of ability and skill, he will be a man valuable to the squad next year.

WILSON MONTGOMERY

Nigger Montgomery, as he is called by his friends, has a flash of color about his ball carrying. As a halfback on the team he did very fine playing. Next year's team will certainly see Wilson as one of its outstanding players.

DAN DAVIDSON TEXADA

A shifty ball-carrier from Alexandria, Louisiana. A star of that school, he is an example of fast, shifty, dodging ball-carrier. Small in size and weight he has had to rely on speed and agility to carry him through or around. And he has used his abilities to his advantage in every game this year. A junior this season, with one more year left to play, his stars point to a very successful climax to his football career next year.

Summers

Montgomery

Texada

WAYNE THEO WELCH

Wayne hails from Crowley, the Rice City. He is a sophomore who handled the guard position on the squad, and one who saw quite a bit of action in last year's games. With two more years left to play, Wayne has a bright future ahead for Southwestern football.

JAMES WESLEY MINNER

Another of those Texas ball players from Port Arthur! Minner held down the end post of the forward wall. When injuries inflicted heavy toll on the team, Minner came to the rescue and played his best brand of ball. With two more years left to play, Minner should be one of the regular eleven for the squad.

Welch

Catalina

Minner

PETE CATALINA

A sophomore from Port Arthur, Texas. Pete was held out all season, but was faithful in reporting to the reserves each day. Because of vacancies left by graduation, this up-and-coming Port Arthur player should see much action on next year's aggregation.

VARSITY FOOTBALL SQUAD

● Early last fall when Coach John Cain issued a call for fall training, to begin on September 1st, he got a gratifying result. More than thirty-five men rolled into Lafayette on this date, and every one of them was ready to go. Most of them had worked all summer and were in fairly good shape.

The Southwestern Bulldogs opened the 1937 season with a defeat at the hands of Mississippi College, and it appeared then that the Rockne System introduced by our new mentor, Coach "Hurry" Cain, would not aid the S. L. I. gridsters. But when Stephen F. Austin fell before the charging line and speeding backs of the Bulldogs, friends and fans saw the improvement and knew that we were headed for a successful season. It was, for we played over .500 percent football, better than any time in the near past.

The 1937 season cannot be called anything but a success, because the team was a great improvement over the 1936 team, and every man was backed by his own fighting spirit and a determination to win.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

● Under the direction of Coach Clifford Johnson, our first year men played some of the stronger aggregations of Louisiana, and proved to friends and fans that they have great possibilities. On October 16, they met the strong Loyola Freshmen and were subdued only after a hard fight. It must be mentioned, however, that this game was played shortly after their organization as a team. From then on, they went undefeated until the last game of the season, which was played against Lamar, the strong Junior College from Beaumont, Texas.

When this year's competition ended, there could easily be seen among these candidates potential stars in men like Bass, Hollister, Houser, Patin, Didier, Woods, Dunphy and Davies.

COACH J. C. REINHARDT

In Coach Reinhardt, Southwestern has a tutor who is thoroughly versed in every technicality and angle of the basketball game. "Dutch" is a well known figure in the S. I. A. A. cage circuit, being responsible for the introduction of the mid-western style of attack, characterized by an intricate style of set plays. Next year's prospects are indicative of the best quintet ever to represent S. L. I. on the rectangular court and a championship contender is expected.

DIAMOND "SHINE" YOUNG

For his aggressiveness and "never-say-die" spirit "Shine" proved himself an ideal Captain. Playing in every minute of every game except a few in the Tech game goes to show the ability and endurance he possesses. Diamond played his high school basketball with Sugartown, Louisiana. With two years experience, Diamond should be one of the leading figures next year on the hardwoods of S. L. I.

AUBREY BACON

Bacon proved to be one of the valuable forwards on the Bulldog quintet. His speed and accuracy at hitting the basket enabled him to be of great assistance on the Bulldog offense. This year he totalled 122 points in twenty games. He bucketed 56 from the court and 10 via the "charity" toss route. Bacon has one year left on the S. L. I. squad and should prove to be one of the main cogs in next year's cage club.

OTIS HURST

Otis, playing his first year for the Southwestern cagers, proved to be the most consistent and to have the best eye for the basket. This sophomore from Jonesboro played in eighteen games; and when the individual scoring was totalled Hurst was found to have scored 161 points for the season, leading all members of the team in this specialty. Otis plays a rugged but smart game, taking advantage of every opportunity, but never giving an inch.

Leigh Stewart

LEIGH STEWART

Leigh, a Lafayette boy, played a forward position on this year's varsity. In the first part of the season he played the pivot position on the team but when Hurst rounded into shape, Stewart was used as a forward and in that position he proved to be a star. His height and ruggedness was a great aid to the squad in rolling up points via the "tap-in" route. Leigh will be back with us again next year, and his services as a forward will surely aid our team in conquering opponents.

Blanchard Sanders

BLANCHARD SANDERS

"Pete" was a teammate of Knighten's at Harris High School. Blanchard finished the season with a total of 84 points to rank third in individual scoring. Sanders proved to be a bright spot at the forward position by his aggressiveness and deception. His playing in the Loyola game here will be hard to forget, for he scored 16 points from angles while speeding down the court. "Pete" is a sophomore and has two more years to serve on the basketball team of Southwestern.

Andrus Martinez

ANDRUS MARTINEZ

Andrus is a junior from Carencro, Louisiana. He is widely known for his guarding ability and clean sportsmanship. Martinez is of the type that never says an unnecessary word, but lets his action on the courts count all. Being the most agile and speedy of any player, along with exceptional ability to recover the ball off the backstop, kept him in the thick of the fight throughout the season. His greatest play—a center shot in the last ten seconds of play in the Hattiesburg Teachers game, which gave victory to our team—is hard to forget. When basketball season closes, he steps on the track, where he is even greater in performance.

JAMES BERGEAUX

Jimmy began his basketball career while attending Elton High School. Because of the lack of experience, Bergeaux was slow to get a start, but within a short while his presence was felt on the hardwoods of S. L. I. Jim plays the pivot position and seems to do better when the going gets rough. As each game was played he improved and his experience in the past season's games will help him a great deal this coming season.

James Bergeaux

ERNEST McMILLAN

Ernest is another Lafayette boy on the squad and an All-District guard during his high school days. "Mac" is a fellow who performs his tasks with the greatest precaution and deliberation—never letting an opponent get the jump on him in any way. He did not break into the line-up until about mid-season; but when he did, he was found to be hard to replace because of his determination to win and the ability to fulfill this desire.

HERBERT SHIRLEY

Herbert, a junior in college, is from DeRidder. Shirley has, at many times, shown flashes of greatness, but due to injuries he was unable to see much service. He has one more year, and if the injury jinx doesn't follow him, he should be hard to stop in the coming season.

Herbert Shirley

Gay Knighten

James Troutman

Willie Reeves

GAY KNIGHTEN

Gay hails from Harris High School, Route 2, Minden, Louisiana, where in 1934 he led that small school to State Championship, and was awarded a center position on the All-State five. In his easy-going way, he has a knack to pile up points via the offensive tactic of his famous "hook" shot. From all indications of his first year of varsity competition, he is going to be a hard one to keep off the 1938-39 Bulldog aggregation. Besides his fine basketball, Gay is an outstanding student leader on the campus.

JAMES TROUTMAN

A star of the Roanoke High School, Troutman played his first year of varsity competition this year and has shown flashes of being one of the best basket shooters on the team. He is known for his ability to take the bumps and keep going and seems to do his best when the going is tough. From all indications, James should be in there scrapping for a first string berth on the next year's Southwestern basketball team.

WILLIE REEVES

Willie measures only five feet six inches but makes up for the lack of height by being aggressive and speedy. A keen eye for the basket and excellent ball handling made him valuable to the squad in many ways. If he were a bit taller and had more ruggedness he would probably have been a regular. Reeves has one more year of varsity competition and from his past performances he should see much service.

Because of the presence of only two experienced men, Leigh Stewart and Diamond Young, Coach Reinhardt's hopes were dim at the opening of the 1937-38 season; but before long, under the guidance of their coach and the response of the candidates, the dark and gloomy clouds faded away. In games won and lost the season closed with a .500 percent average; but this does not reveal the true facts, for close scores and hairline finishes lost them more than one game.

Our team never once failed to fight it out to the finish and give the opponents a hundred percent of what they had. Losing to teams as Tulane and L. S. U. by five and eight points respectively goes to show they fought gallantly against great odds. In the last game of the season they perhaps showed their true worth, defeating Delta Teachers from Mississippi, a team that went to the quarter-finals of the National Intercollegiate Tournament.

A fact that gives a coach satisfaction was experienced by Coach Reinhardt this year when he looks at his entire squad and knows that every man will be back the coming year. Added to these will be Carl Hurst and Dempsey Young from the Freshman Team, who, together, led their team to an undefeated season.

WALTER "BERNIE" DAVIES

Overshadowing the achievements of the great "Red" Brown, legendary Bulldog heavy-weight, the big lad by the name of "Bernie" Davies proved to be the biggest success and the biggest attraction of S. L. I.'s crack boxing club. Weighing approximately 210 pounds, "Bernie" used his great physical strength in combination with superb skill to blast all but two of his opponents. A majority of his seven victories were via the technical kayo route. One of his losses was to a finalist in the 1938 National Golden Gloves championship.

BILL BASS

Bill was nicknamed "Baby Face" by North Louisiana sports writers, not because he was a weakling, but rather for the fact that his innocent looking face was only a sham. He possessed a "T. N. T." punch in either glove and won several fights via the "Towel-throwing" route. Bass was one of the stalwarts of the 1938 fistic outfit.

THURMAN PARDUE

Flying the S. L. I. banner for the first time, Freshman Pardue proved to be a sensation in the "tiny" weight division. When not serving as an understudy to Captain Carlo Listi in the lightweight section, Pardue dished out his "kayo" punches in the 126-pound class.

GEORGE "GEE" MITCHELL Coach

This year marked the second in Coach George Mitchell's career as head boxing tutor at Southwestern. Without a doubt the splendid record made by the Bulldog pugilists may largely be attributed to the excellent coaching of "Gee" Mitchell. Out of a card of ten matches, the Bulldogs were undefeated, capturing eight and drawing two. Victories were registered doubly over Tech, Northeast Center and Centenary. One team victory was gained over Millsaps and a forfeit match was won from Ole Miss. Deadlocks were fought with the strong Loyola University Wolves of New Orleans.

CAPTAIN CARLO LISTI

Into the annals of S. L. I. boxing history goes the name of Carlo Listi—former S. A. A. U. lightweight champion. His collegiate record reads: Twenty-eight victories, four draws and a sole loss. Possessing a ducking, weaving and bobbing style of pugilism, the "Invincible" Listi gained many victories as well as much praise from all his opponents. Listi leaves S. L. I. boxing circles but his great record will remain with the Bulldogs.

C. C. MATT

A long and husky Bulldog scrapper is C. C. Matt. Without a doubt, he is the squad's best jabber and skill fighter. Matt alternated in the 155 and 165-pound divisions and saw much service in the past season. He stood out as a sure winner every time he stepped into the square ring.

WILSON LANDRY

Adding prestige to the ever increasing glory of Scott, Louisiana, Wilson Landry showed signs of developing into S. L. I.'s toughest scrapper in the past year. The Scott pride, flying the Bulldogs' trunks for his first season, was victorious in all but one fight. Next year he should be a very important cog in the S. L. I. Bulldog ring squad.

JOE DEVORE

Before coming to S. L. I., Joe Devore gained national prestige in amateur boxing circles by winning the Hawaiian Amateur Championship. He justly deserved such recognition and authenticated it by showing S. L. I. fight fans that he could "dish" it out and "take" it in return. With little doubt, it can be said that at the end of the year, Joe Devore was the outstanding fighter on the Bulldog squad. His skill, his experience and his willingness marks him as a future "great" in boxing ranks.

Harlan Willey

Cooper Doucet

Claude Guidry

HARLAN WILLEY

Besides his "writing" abilities, Harlan Willey developed his pugilistic talents since he enrolled at S. L. I. last year. Willey is gifted with a unique but pleasant style of fighting in which his powerful legs and arms are profitably used. Among the many victories under his belt, is a clean-cut decision over Claude Mason, Centenary's S. A. A. U. light heavy-weight champion.

COOPER DOUCET

From the eastern district of the Lone Star state, comes Cooper "Wildcat" Doucet. As a go-getter in the square ring, "Wildcat" marked up many victories in the square ring. He showed alertness, skill and punching ability against all of his opponents and chalked the "win" columns very often. This season was his last as a member of the Bulldog squad.

CLAUDE GUIDRY

The only fighter to represent Lafayette on the boxing team was Claude Guidry, product of Lafayette High School. Guidry entered college at mid-term; however, that failed to handicap him as the record book indicates the numerous victories in his chart. A power-house, he used advantageously his terrific right-hand jaw clip and many of his bouts ended with "T. K. O." victories for him.

COACH R. L. BROWNE

Track Coach and Athletic Director

Is largely responsible for the great record established by the cinderpath athletes of Southwestern. Last year, the Bulldog light clads annexed the fourth consecutive District S. I. A. A. track and field championship held at Pineville, Louisiana. Another highlight of the track season is the annual S. L. I. Relay Carnival in which the Bulldogs play hosts to hundreds of track stars from universities, colleges and high schools of the south.

JOE JOHNSTON

In the annals of S. L. I. track activities is the name of Joe Johnston as the best middle-distance runner ever to fly the local colors. As a senior-letterman, Johnston was voted alternate captain of the Bulldogs and he proved himself capable of this position. Unbeaten in the half-mile event, he won over representatives of L. S. U., Louisiana College, Normal, Stephen F. Austin, Tech and Mississippi College, being clocked at one time in 1:57.6. Formerly a long-winded trackster, Johnston is credited with the S. I. A. A. mile run record of 4:28.2 minutes.

RAOUL LANDRY

"Cow," as his teammates call him, has ended a brilliant career as quarter-miler for the District Champions. In the course of his competitive years, he established a new S. I. A. A. mark of 49.2 in the one-oval event. His value to the Bulldog club is shown in that he was anchor man on the sensational baton-switching quartet. Last year he finished his track stay at S. L. I. by serving in the capacity of track captain.

SIDNEY LeBLANC

"Sid" LeBlanc was one of the valuable cindermen on the Bulldog squad. His best events were the quarter mile, the half mile, the mile and the two-mile events. This list appears to be rather elongated, yet, it illustrates fully "Sid's" ability to fill a valuable "utility" spot on the team. He was also a member of the famous Bulldog mile quartet.

FITZ PHARR

The little "spike-man" with the big jump—that's Fitz "Spec" Pharr. "Spec" was the high-jumping star of Coach Browne's track outfit. As a first year track member he showed his worth against strenuous competition; his greatest feat was winning a scoring position in the annual district S. I. A. A. track and field championships.

DELBERT JACKSON

Jackson proved to be of great value to S. L. I.'s track aggregation by amassing point-winning places in practically every meet with the solid-plate—the discus. Capably equipped with physical and co-ordinating qualities, he displayed amazing form and wonderful ability with the disk.

TRACK

HAROLD BROCK

This was Brock's first year in intercollegiate track competition. His best event was the grinding 220-yard low hurdles—one of the sport's most fatiguing running and jumping events. He showed great speed and performed capably throughout the past cinderpath season.

RENE DOMINGUE

A track "find"—who, for the first time in his career, donned track shoes as a Freshman two years ago. Domingue is naturally gifted with speed and agility and proved to be S. L. I.'s best bet to gather in sprinting honors. Only a sophomore in college, Domingue has a brilliant track career ahead of him.

HORACE ADKINS

"Little Shorty" Adkins—brother of the famous S. L. I. high jump king, "Big Shorty" Adkins—decided to cast his lot in the dashes and broad-jump. Adkins, one of the campus's popular students, gave a stellar performance in his first try at collegiate cinderpathing. He should prove a valuable asset to the coming Bulldog track squads.

THEO ROGER

A dark, curly-haired sprinter from Carencro. In high school he was among the best quarter-milers in the state of Louisiana. He suffered from a leg injury early in the track year; however, he soon recovered and offered his much-needed services to the Bulldogs. Besides starring in the quarter-mile he was a leading figure on the relay team.

Roger

Martinez

ANDRUS MARTINEZ

A high school teammate of Roger's, Martinez is another Bulldog track star who has added considerably to the prestige of Carencro, Louisiana. His efforts were concentrated towards gaining "honors" for the Bulldogs in the 220-yard low hurdles. Being naturally suited by height and speed he is without a doubt S. L. I.'s best low-hurdler in years. Last year marked his first in Southwestern varsity track.

TOM DUCREST

As Joe Johnston's understudy in the two-oval run, Ducrest finished his first collegiate track year in brilliant fashion. He possesses endurance, speed and timing qualities—the essentials of a qualified middle distance spikeman. Ducrest will bear the brunt of the Bulldog "running" attack.

1938 TRACK

TARLTON DAIGLE

Some years ago Coach Browne spotted Johnny Morris and played an important part in Johnny's subsequent showing in national and universal high hurdling competitions. Again, last year, Coach picked out Daigle—a novice in high hurdling—and began tutoring and developing him for the event. Daigle responded slowly but definitely, and looms as an "ace" on next year's Bulldog track team.

WOODROW DIXON

Leading the Bulldog pole-vaulters is Woodrow Dixon—a long, lanky and powerful athlete. Dixon finished his first year by repeatedly gaining winning points for the Bulldogs.

IRVIN STIRLING

The "Bayou Flash" who came, saw, puffed and puffed, then conquered—that's Stirling. He has the honor of being the most long-winded trackman on the squad—and he certainly had to possess that quality because his efforts were expanded in the grueling two-mile event. Very often the first to break the tape, Stirling shows prospects of being unbeaten in the remainder of his track days at S. L. I.

The Red Jacket Club did much to foster the spirit of Southwestern among the students and athletic fans of Lafayette and surrounding sections last season. When the spirit of the fans seemed to die at football games, the Red Jackets led the cheering that inspired the team with that fighting spirit so typical of Southwestern. At all football games the Red Jackets, led by the Band, entertained the spectators with fine formations on the field. To them goes the credit of being loyal supporters and boosters of Southwestern's athletic teams.
